

December 20, 2025: Tip to KSAT Investigates

So, basically, the inside scoop is that Donald Trump (his team) has his (their) hands on some advanced spying technology that allows him (them) to literally watch people inside of their homes, everything that they do on their phones and computers, in their backyards, and then follow them around using a team of agitating, spying criminals.

His basic strategy? Honestly, after three or more years of enduring this ongoing private nuisance, it is exactly that - a private nuisance that his team unleashes against Donald Trump's targets. Donald Trump unleashes a private nuisance on his targets that is more numerous in number and more intrusive in personal details than any other influence in his target's life.

Their routine is so intrusive and so persistent that it literally becomes the 'most important' thing in any person's life because of the purely overwhelming number of agitating, and bothersome, forces being pushed against his targets home and daily routine. There is simply nothing more 'helpful' or 'harmful' to a person's life than their agitations - once they begin their attack.

And what's worse? The more that a person tries to ignore their efforts, the more they increase their efforts to get in your life. Their team is absolutely embarking on a full-scale invasion of people's lives and refusing to leave - while then bothering and agitating and forcefully demanding their targets' attention (negative or positive) at all times.

When Donald Trump says a person is suffering from 'Trump Derangement Syndrome' - at least in my case - I can personally attest that Donald Trump is attacking their life with a spying, intrusive, agitation machine that forces a person to constantly be discomforted by their ongoing and persistent nuisance efforts.

There is, indeed, a 'Trump Derangement Syndrome' - and it is being pushed from Donald Trump's own deranged method of using his financial and political resources.

I am telling you: Donald Trump is attacking peoples' home life and then pretending like they are 'obsessed' with him.

Was Donald Trump's team also attacking Rob Reiner and his son in the same way?

How many other recent terrorist attacks are being 'conjured' up by these private spying and agitation campaigns?

How big is Donald Trump's illegal spying machine now?

How many other people are being harmed by their ongoing ability to wage psychological warfare on people's private lives without any accountability whatsoever?

I have reported this to the FBI, the Texas Rangers, the SAPD and the United States Secret Service - nobody seems to care one bit!
